Challenge and Opportunity

EUROPE NEEDS THE GOSPEL

Europe is adrift and in need of an anchor, not in material terms, but morally and spiritually. Europe is filled with churches—often empty, abandoned or converted into museums, restaurants and shops. Take away the beautiful church buildings and you’ll be hard-pressed to see any hint of genuine Christianity. Sadly, most Europeans do not have a life-changing relationship with Jesus or know anyone who does.

Italy

DID YOU KNOW

- There are over 600 official religions in Italy.
- Out of the 33,500 Italian communities, 96% or 32,000 of them have no established evangelical witness.
- Italy has an estimated 100,000 recognized fortune-tellers.
- Less than 5% of Catholics are actually practicing what they believe.
- Islam is the second religion in Italy, while the Jehovah’s Witnesses are as numerous as all Evangelicals in the country put together.
- In the city of Milan, alone, more than 1,000 teenagers commit suicide each year.
- There are only 460 missionaries in a country of over 58 million people.
- Christian books, radio and television programs are virtually non-existent.
